With the Amateurs

By Joseph A. West.

"Smokey Joe" Sanderson and "Bill" French, both pitchers of Tylers's team in the Old Dominion League, are hurlers most dreaded by teams in their league.

James Gentry, after spending some weeks in Philadelphia watching big leaguers, has returned to his old position at first base for the Tylers.

Manager Schmike, of the Woodall & Quarles team of the Old Dominion League, is one of the best outfielders in that league. His playing is sensational, yet he does not play to the grandstand.

Harvey "Fritz" Talbot, first baseman for the Sterling team, of the Southside League, has a record to be proud of—he has accepted 107 chances without an error, and he is batting close to the .327 mark.

Captain Frank Quinn, of the McGill Catholic Union baseball team, is one of the best players on his team. He is a good first baseman, runs good, and stands well at bat.

J. Ross and J. Murphy, McGill's two pitchers, are in fine shape and expect to show the "leaguers" something before they quit McGill as an independent team, and wants games.

Frank Dunn, now playing second base for the Grays, is expected to seek a tryout next spring with some Ohio League team.

"Beef," as they call him, is a fast man, and also a sure man, whether at bat, on bases or in the field. It is predicted by many that he will make good in higher company.

"Saul" Deppie, who caught in the United States League during 1912, is now catching for the Kahns of Richmond in the Old Dominion League, and he's "some" catcher.

There will be a meeting held Wednesday night in the Grays' Armory, for the purpose of deciding on a protest entered by Barton Heights against one of the Grays' games. Mr. Montgomery, Cleve Bailey and Dr. Price will be present, also some witnesses.

Manager Ross was at Lee Park yesterday to see the Collegians-Jacobs & Levy game. After the game was over, he left to see the Grays' game, and, of course, Ross had to leave the park.

The Grays-Ashland games yesterday were the prettiest contests seen by amateur lots this season.

The Woodworkers and Jones-Green each got credit for a win yesterday because W. Huglets and the Ramblers failed to put in their appearance for the game. But who likes to win in this manner? If these two teams are going to give up, they will do a good thing by letting the secretary of the league know, so he can call a meeting and arrange a schedule.

Brown, pitcher for the Richmond Electric Co., of the Southside League, has seven straight wins to his credit.

Walton, pitcher for the Woodworkers, of the Central League, is back in the game after three weeks' illness.

The Grays-Ashland game went well until the eleventh, then Nelson, second baseman for the Grays, broke it up with a triple to center field. He scored on Blunt's infield hit.

The Old Dominion League race is so hot that it can be compared with the race in the Virginia League in that respect.

Joe Wood, released by the Woodworkers, has signed with the Wizards. Bill Chalkley, the Wizards' left fielder, is certainly playing good ball, and is hitting close to the .350 mark.

The official batting averages of the Grays-Wrights team shows them to have three men batting over the .400 mark and five in the .300 class.

The Kahns, of Richmond, seem to think they received a raw deal at Byrd Park yesterday when Umpire Dowden called two of the Kahns plays out. Several runs would have resulted if Umpire Dowden had not made such a decision.

The Powhatans have a nice team, and will make the opposing clubs in the Old Dominion League go some for the season's laurels.

Currie, the steady little third baseman of Kahns, sure hits the pill hard and fields in big league style.

O'Connor is playing a good game for the Home Brewing Co.

Mogan, catcher for the Home Brewing Co., puts to second in class style.

Cooke, third baseman for Lovenslein, in the Southside League, is expected to be back in the game next Saturday.

James and Jackson, for Lovenslein, are both good outfielders, and it is very seldom that a ball gets past them.

Riley, of the Indians, in the West End League, is pitching good ball. He has five consecutive wins to his credit.

The Kahns, of Richmond, will play one of the postponed games with the Powhatans, who are now holding the Horace S. Wrights franchise, on Wednesday afternoon at Fulton Park.

Umpire French put "Billy" Hay, catcher for the Battle Axes, out of the game yesterday in the Barton Heights-Battle Axe contest.

Barton Heights and Battle Axe Split.
Barton Heights and Battle Axe split even in two seven-inning games yesterday at Barton Heights, the first going Barton Heights' way 4 to 3, and the second ending 5 to 3 in the Battle Axes' favor.

Lohmann, for Barton Heights, pitched two splendid games, and should have come out winner in both games, but for two wild throws on the part of his teammates in the second.

Whitfield pitched good ball in both games, and batted in most of the runs scored by his team.

Kline's batting and Burch's fielding featured for the Axes. While the fielding of Ames and Whitson and the stick work of Stout for Barton Heights featured.

Enkeling played his usual good game at short, and Gordon caught Lohmann in splendid style.

Dr. Price's Grays Win Two.

By defeating Ashland in two hard-fought battles, Dr. Price's Grays strengthened their hold upon the first position and demonstrated their ability in defensive work.

Blanton and Shelton pitched beautiful games, but the inability of their teammates to hit Canepa at opportune times was the cause of their defeat. Canepa also pitched masterly ball, holding his opponents in hand at every critical point, yet at all times reserving his strength being practically as fresh at the end as he was in the beginning.

Ashland scored two in the initial inning of the opening game on an error, a single by Doggett and a triple by Blanton. The Grays secured one in the first on a clout by Bigbie for three-fourths of the circuit and a single by Blount, tying the score in the seventh on Saracino's homer, winning in the eleventh on a three-bagger by Nelson, he scoring on Blunt's infield ball.

Ashland also took the lead in the final fray, scoring one in the second frame on a single by Doggett, followed by Blanton. The Grays tied things up in the third on singles by Morgan and Canepa, coupled with a wild throw by Pearson. Then on hits by Bigbie and Blount and a wild toss by Midette, they secured two, which eventually proved enough to decide the game.

Blanton and Bigbie's batting, Saracino's throwing and the fielding of Morgan were the features of the game, while Doggett and Kendler also deserve praise for their work.

The Wizards went down to defeat in both games of a doubleheader before the champion Horace S. Wrights team at Colonial Park yesterday, by the scores, 3 to 1 and 13 to 0. The Wizards never had a look-in for either game as the superb pitching of Haskins and Powell was too much for them. While on the other hand, the Wright boys batted Mason, who used to be a star in this league, very hard and won both games in the end.

The Wrights were featured by the heavy hitting of the entire Wright team, every man increasing his batting average, and the fast base stealing of Haskins and Powell. The Hickories handed out a bunch of goose eggs to the Athletics in Saturday's game at St. Andrew's Park, the score standing 8 to 0. Apple was in the box for the Hickories and pitched a good game, allowing but one hit. Cottrell did the honors at the plate for the Athletics, and pitched winning ball if he had been properly supported. Many infield and outfield errors contributed to a defeat. While the Athletics have lost the past several games, still their team is being strengthened, and they are putting up a better game than at the first of the season. The Hickories continue to lead the league, and are playing fast, snappy ball. They feel very sure of winning the pennant, but let's wait and see. St. Andrew's will put up a strong fight for the game with them Monday, and are hoping to have a look in at the pennant themselves. The insurance boys are putting up a game fight, but can hardly hope for anything better than second place.
